Because Camp Ray Bird desires to protect the children in our care and programs, please answer the following questions. We understand that the answer to these questions may be privately and deeply personal, and we will protect your privacy.

1. How or from whom did you hear about Camp Ray Bird?

2. Why do you want to work with children at Camp Ray Bird?

3. Do you have a preference concerning the age group or gender of children with whom you would like to work? Why?

4. What do you think is the best way to redirect a child who is not listening?

5. When you are unhappy, angry or emotional about a person or circumstance, what do you do?

6. Do you consider yourself to have been physically or sexually abused as a child? (This information will be kept entirely confidential. We realize it can be very hard to process abuse, especially on your own, and we would like to offer ourselves in any way we can, even if just to listen or talk. )

7. Have you ever physically or sexually abused a child?

8. Has someone ever accused you of abusing a child?
9. What is the difference between a Christian and a non-Christian? Please describe how you came to be a Christian.
10. What do you do to help you feel closer to God?
11. Describe your relationship with your parents and (if applicable) siblings.
12. Describe your understanding of biblical sexual ethics.

I certify that everything in this application is correct and truthful. I understand that past employers (unless I ask Ray Bird Ministries not to contact them) and references will be contacted by Ray Bird Ministries. I also understand that Ray Bird Ministries may do a criminal record check for the purpose of ensuring all applicants will have no history of abusing or neglecting a child.
